

Dana D. Moore

Dana Moore is a freshman at Neah-Kah-Nie High School on the north Oregon coast. She lives with her mom, her brother, and their two dogs, Lily and Baxter, in Manzanita. Dana plays the oboe and has tried the flute, guitar, violin, and drums. She was born in Clackamas, Oregon and used to live in Beaverton before moving out to the coast. She has attended the Oregon Writers Conference in Portland twice and was the Tillamook County Spelling Bee Champion in the 5th grade. Dana wants to major in Liberal Arts and become a writer and an artist.
